Becnel, Amy Crawford, Bert Jacome, Don Barron, Thomas Luckman, Pierre Skelton, Deborah Day, Scott Hinrichs, Sidney Davis, Jesse Crew, Jon Kolka, Robert Wright and Miles Cole (“Settlement Class Representatives”) and Defendant American Honda Motor Company, Inc. (“Honda”) dated December 21, 2006 and amended February 23, 2010 (the “Honda Settlement”); having considered all of the submissions and arguments made with respect to the proposed settlement; having certified the following Class (“the Settlement Class”) for settlement purposes:

All persons or entities in the United States who, beginning January 1, 1994 up to and including [date], the date when Notice of the Court's entry of an order preliminarily approving this settlement and certifying the Settlement Class was first published, purchased, for their own use and not for resale, a lawn mower containing a gas combustible engine up to 30 horsepower provided where either the lawn mower or the engine of the lawn mower was manufactured or sold by a Defendant.

having directed that notice be given to the Settlement Class of the proposed Honda Settlement and of the Final Approval Hearing to hear and consider any objections from members of the Settlement Class and to determine whether the proposed Honda Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate; having held a Final Approval Hearing; and having considered the submissions and arguments made in connection therewith, hereby ORDERS that:

1. The Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this litigation. For purposes of resolving the MDL litigation, the Court's approval of the Honda Settlement and the Settlement Class and all other findings herein are made in the Martinez v. Sears, Roebuck & Co. et al., Case No. 2:09-cv-0469-LA (E.D. Wis. May 7, 2009). The Court finds that resolution of the Martinez case, because it alleges a nationwide class under federal law and encompasses all classes alleged in all the other Actions, resolves all Actions in this MDL.

2. Capitalized terms in this Order not defined in the Order shall have the same meaning as those in the Honda Settlement.

3. The Court hereby adopts and reaffirms the findings and conclusions set forth in the Order Preliminarily Approving Honda Settlement, Certifying Settlement Class, Appointing Settlement Class Counsel, Directing Notice and Staying Proceedings against the Settling Defendants (“Order of Preliminary Approval”).

4. The Court’s certification pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 of the above-defined Class for settlement purposes in the Order of Preliminary Approval is hereby confirmed.

5. The Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Settlement Class in connection with the Honda Settlement, and are hereby appointed Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel, respectively.

6. The form, content and manner of notice disseminated to the Class was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, included individual notice to all members of the Class identified through reasonable effort, and constituted due and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, Final Approval Hearing, and related matters. The Notice Plan complied with the Order of Preliminary Approval, the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c) and (e), and applicable standards of due process. Appropriate proof of the mailing of the Postcard Notice and the publication of the Summary Notice has been filed with the Court.

7. Appropriate proof of notice to the United States Attorney General, and the Attorneys General of all the States, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1715, has been filed with the Court, and more than 90 days have passed since that notice was given, thereby satisfying the requirements of the Class Action Fairness Act.

8. The Court has held the Final Fairness Hearing, and has considered the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the proposed Honda Settlement.

9. The proposed Honda Settlement was reached after extensive investigation of the facts and discovery in this litigation and as a result of vigorous arm's-length negotiations supervised by an experienced mediator, undertaken in good faith by experienced counsel.

10. The Court has considered the submissions and arguments of the parties, including among other things, the negotiation of the settlement by counsel experienced in consumer fraud, antitrust and class litigation, the value of an assured recovery coupled with the right to continue to litigate against the remaining Defendants who have not also settled, the risks presented by protracted and expensive litigation, the judgment of experienced and informed counsel that, under all of the circumstances, the settlement is fair and reasonable, and the fact that the settlement provides for a recovery of $7.5 million for the benefit of the Settlement Class.

11. The Honda Settlement is a fair, reasonable, and adequate settlement for the Settlement Class, and is hereby accorded final approval pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), including the plan of distribution set forth in the Honda Settlement Agreement.

12. The Plaintiffs and all other persons within the definition of the Settlement Class, with the exception of any persons who requested exclusion from the Settlement Class and are listed on the attached Exhibit A, are members of the Class and are bound by the terms and conditions of the Honda Settlement.

13. The members of the Settlement Class and all other Releasing Parties are deemed to have released and forever discharged Honda and all other Released Parties from any and all Released Claims, as provided in the Honda Settlement.

14. With respect to Honda, these actions are hereby dismissed with prejudice and without costs to any party.

15. The foregoing dismissal and all related releases apply only in favor of Honda and the Released Parties and are without prejudice to the claims of Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class against all other Defendants in this litigation, which claims are explicitly preserved by the Honda Settlement and this Order for Final Judgment.

16. Settlement Class Members are barred and enjoined from instituting or prosecuting, either directly, representatively, derivatively or in any other capacity, any other action asserting any of the claims released pursuant to the Honda Settlement and this Order for Final Judgment.

17. The Honda Settlement is in good faith and bars, extinguishes, and discharges claims against Honda and the Released Parties by all other Defendants for contribution or indemnity under federal or state law.

18. Neither the Honda Settlement nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to the Honda Settlement: (i) may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, the validity of any Released Claim, or of any wrongdoing or liability of any Released Party, or (ii) may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, any fault or omission of any Released Party in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency or other tribunal.

19. In the event that the Honda Settlement does not satisfy the terms of the Honda Settlement for Final Approval, then this Order for Final Judgment and all Honda settlement-related orders entered and releases given shall become null and void to the extent provided by the Honda Settlement.

20. Without affecting the finality of this Order for Final Judgment, the Court retains jurisdiction over the remainder of the litigation between Plaintiffs and all non-settling Defendants, and retains jurisdiction over the implementation and administration of the Honda Settlement, specifically including consideration of any application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Settlement Class Counsel that may be distributed upon Final Approval and distribution of settlement funds to members of the Settlement Class upon Final Approval pursuant to a plan of distribution approved by the Court.

21. The Court finds pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure that there is no just reason for delay and therefore directs that judgment be entered immediately as to Honda.

THERE BEING NO JUST REASON FOR DELAY, LET JUDGMENT BE ENTERED ACCORDINGLY.
